Honor an Outstanding Educator

Honor that special educator by having a brick engraved and with their name placed in the WALK OF FAME at the Kansas Teachers' Hall of Fame in Dodge City, Kansas. For an additional charge of $15 you may order a paperweight to present to the person you are honoring.

The Kansas Teachers' Hall of Fame was the first Teachers' Hall of Fame established in the United States. Mr. Laurence Stanton established it in 1977. This is an opportunity to have an engraved brick placed in the Walk of Fame leading to the building located at 603 Fifth Avenue in Dodge City, Kansas for all attending to recognize the contribution this person has made in the field of education.
